The Constitution of Team New Nigeria (TNN)

PREAMBLE

Whereas the evident underdevelopment, poverty, and extreme low standard of living in Africa, and particularly in Nigerian societies, enabled the need for a revolutionary and progressive social and economic change a necessary objective in present day Nigeria;

And whereas there is increasing need for an urgent intervention to repair the constitutional, political, economic, social and cultural values of our nation; the emancipation of Nigerians from poverty, hunger, illiteracy and diseases resulting from systemic poor governance;

And whereas Nigerians have demonstrated genuinely the need for a working democracy – social and liberal political system, mass participation, multiparty system, representative governance, transparency, accountability, good governance and respect for the right of the citizens leading to an egalitarian social society;

And whereas the existing political parties for all intents and purposes, appeared to have failed to address the problems of Nigeria, mainly socio-economic and security challenges affecting our collective welfare;

And whereas we have recognised the need to provide for ourselves a social welfarist and democratic constitution that recognise collective social and economic rights including the right to work, rest and leisure, health, protection, care in old age and sickness, housing, education and cultural benefit, universal direct suffrage and the right to work and all to be guaranteed as our legitimate aspirational socioeconomic and political objective;

And whereas from the 24th January, 2024, delegates representing the FCT and the 36 States of Nigeria met at a Convention in Abuja to discuss various issues of concern about Nigeria; and whereas the Convention unanimously noted the weakness and the failure of successive administrations to govern Nigeria justly, transparently, honestly, fairly and equitably;

In particular, the Convention noted:

- a) The inability of the economy to address the basic needs of most Nigerians, the disempowerment of the people, breach of the rule of law and abuse of human rights, and in particular, the insecurity being perpetrated by non-state actors;
- b) The severe decline in incomes, employment, health, food, security and wellbeing of people, the unfair burden borne by workers and the persistence of different forms of discrimination in practice;
- c) The decline and, in some cases, total collapse of public services;
- d) The persistence of regionalism, ethnicism, sectionalism and other divisions undermining national integration;
- e) Wide-spread corruption and lack of public accountability in political and economic institutions;

Following extensive nationwide consultations with stakeholders and other interested Nigerians, there emanated an overwhelming desire to form a broad-based political party which the Convention ratified and has now established a political party known as TEAM NEW NIGERIA (TNN) dedicated to the promotion and advancement of human rights and to setting up a government based on the principles of freedom and good governance and, also, within the context of the broad principles and concerns of the convention.”
